

MEETINGS

We offer a unique setting for meetings and lectures in our restaurant with custom made interior and an excellent acoustics.

In the lower level of the restaurant you have the opportunity to hold your private functions, meetings, lectures and so on.

The settings will have you feel a more informal and intimate vibe than you useally get from traditional meeting rooms. The room is a former emergency shelter, now redecorated with bright benches and chairs of leather and terazzo floors.

There is a projector and free WIFI.

To the right, you can have a look at our packages - do you need anything else or want it differently, we can find an offer that matches your needs.

FUNCTIONS

In our newest restaurant in the City Center, Aamanns 1921, we offer unique settings for functions - both private and not.

The restaurant's interior is designed from the inspiration of the church and is simple and clean. The lamps are custom made as well as the bright benches and chairs of leather.

The lower level of the restaurant is a former emergency shelter and in this section you can have private parties*.

The lunch is rooted in the classic Danish tradition added new ideas and well considered combinations of flavour. The evening is based on classic Danish dishes recreated with the focus on great taste, surprises and quality craftsmanship.

To the right, we show you offers for inspiration, however, if you wish it differently, we will find an offer that suits you.
